On July 16, 2010, Mr. Wahchumwah was released from the Bureau of Prisons, at which time his terms of supervised release commenced.

Since Mr. Wahchumwah's release from prison, his compliance to supervision has been poor. On August 16, 2010, Klickitat County sheriff's officers and Yakama Tribal police were dispatched to 258 Hanging Rock Road in Goldendale, Washington, in reference to individuals fighting. According to a Yakama Tribal Police narrative report, Mr. Wahchumwah was charged with assault and battery for hitting another person on the head, arm, and leg with an aluminum pipe. According to the police report, Mr. Wahchumwah was not arrested, but the report would be forwarded to the prosecutor's office for review. The following day, the defendant's house and his sister's house which are next to each other were completely destroyed by a fire. On September 28, 2010, this officer contacted the tribal prosecutor's office, but they declined to provide information regarding the status of the assault and battery allegation.

After the above incident, Mr. Wahchumwah moved in with his sister at 919 North Pipeline Road in Goldendale, Washington. This residence was to be only temporary until he found a place of his own.

On September 27, 2010, this officer met with a social worker from the Washington State Department of Social & Health Services (DSHS) in Goldendale, Washington. This officer was advised there was another family with children residing at 919 North Pipeline Road in Goldendale. This officer was further advised that if the defendant was still residing at this address, the children would need to be removed and placed in foster care.

This officer spoke with Mr. Wahchumwah's sister who indicated the defendant had not been staying at her residence since September 20, 2010. She further stated Mr. Wahchumwah had been staying with his father, Jim Wahchumwah in Yakima, because of his brother's Federal trial. Mr. Wahchumwah's sister stated that as of Friday, September 24, 2010, the defendant was told he could no longer reside at her residence.

It should be noted, this officer met with Mr. Wahchumwah at the probation office on September 23, 2010, and he did not mention his current home situation. Further on September 27, 2010, this officer had brief contact with Mr. Wahchumwah, and he was aware of the DSHS investigation.

On September 28, 2010, contact was made with the Klickitat County Sheriff's Office and was advised that Mr. Wahchumwah has yet to register as a sex offender since he is no longer residing at 919 North Pipeline Road in Goldendale, Washington.

On September 29, 2010, this officer spoke with Mr. Wahchumwah and he advised he does not have a place to live. Mr. Wahchumwah reported he has stayed with one of his sister's in Wapato knowing there are children residing at this residence. His sister's address is also near his wife's residence where he is prohibited to reside or loiter. Mr. Wahchumwah reported he is now living in his vehicle at Rock Creek near mile post 119 on Highway 14 in Klickitat County.

Mr. Wahchumwah's lack of residence and his unauthorized stay with family members who have young children is of great concern. This officer is requesting Mr. Wahchumwah's conditions be modified to include electronic monitoring using a Global Positioning System to make sure he avoids staying at unauthorized residences.
